CERTIFIED COURSE

Approved Training Partner, ID:6053715

Description

This training program provides a comprehensive overview of Environmental Management Systems (EMS), including approaches to auditing, the requirements of ISO 14001, and the methodology for planning, conducting, and reporting a full EMS audit.

Target Audience

The course is designed for individuals seeking to develop the competence to audit an organizationâ s environmental management system in accordance with ISO 14001, either as a third-party auditor or as an internal (first-party) auditor. Successful completion of this course is a prerequisite for certification as an Auditor under the IRCA EMS program.

Course Content

Within the context of first-, second-, and third-party audits, the course covers the following techniques and methodologies:

- Audit planning, including the development and use of checklists
- Audit execution, including interviews, document review, process observation, and procedural audits
- Audit reporting and feedback techniques
- Follow-up on audit findings and leveraging results to drive continual improvement
- Audit team leadership

Participants will also be introduced to key concepts in Environmental Management, including:

- Principles of Environmental Management
- The Planâ□□ Doâ□□ Checkâ□□ Act (PDCA) methodology
- ISO 14001 standard requirements
- Risk and opportunity management related to environmental aspects and impacts
- Compliance with legal and regulatory frameworks

A very good knowledge of the standard and familiarity with its requirements is required.

Exams

Examinations are conducted online through the CQI-IRCA examination platform within 30 days from the last day of the training course. Upon successful completion of the examinations, an IRCA-CQI Auditor/Lead Auditor Certificate is awarded. The exam questions may relate to prior knowledge that is not covered in this course. It is strongly recommended that learners who lack the required prior knowledge acquire it before booking a place on the course. In case of failure in the final exams, a Certificate of Attendance is issued, and the opportunity for a re-examination is provided within one year.
